

SAMUEL MOORE & MICHAEL CHRISTIAN DURRANT

Present

GUITAR, THE HEART OF SPAIN

PROGRAMME NOTES

Join two of the UK's finest guitarists as they take you on an unforgettable journey through the musical landscape of Spain. In this unique collaboration, flamenco guitarist Samuel Moore and classical guitarist Michael Christian Durrant explore the intriguing connections and subtle differences that both bring together and set apart the musical worlds of classical and flamenco guitar.

This unique concert platform draws on a vivid selection of music by Spanish composers, such as Joaquín Rodrigo, Isaac Albéniz and Manuel de Falla, set alongside music from the flamenco tradition, including palos (musical forms) such as Sevillana, Zorongo and Malagueña. With an inspired combination of both solo and duo performances, this is a concert experience not to be missed.
